Today's Instructions:

- Grab your name plate from the tray
- Sit in your assigned seat (Keep it 100--the substitute has the seating chart)
- Begin your Para Comenzar
- Quietly work on your Comic Strip
- Be sure to get your assignment stamped by the substitute before turning it in. You will not receive credit if there isn't a stamp and/or it is not fully completed.
- Your phones and devices are put away unless the substitute has given you a music listening privilege.

Para Comenzar:

In your notebook or on a sheet of paper, answer the following questions using a complete sentence:

1. ¿Cuál es tu número de teléfono? (en Español)
2. What are the three pieces of basic information that you will be tested on Friday?

Comic Strip:

On the back of this page, you should have a blank Comic Strip template. Please illustrate (draw) six scenes and include a dialogue with the following elements:

- Greeting
- Introduction
- How are you?/Emotion
- Reaction
- Goodbye

Use the following checklist to ensure you successfully earn an A on this assignment:

- I have six illustrations (drawings).
- I included a greeting, introduction, how are you?/emotion, reaction, and a goodbye.
- I used complete sentences throughout my comic strip.
- It is written 100% in Spanish.
- My sentences are clearly written.
- My assignment is neat.
- I put forth effort.
- The substitute has stamped it.

Finished?

- Turn your stamped assignment into the designated tray.
- Return your name plate.
- Return any colored pencils you may have borrowed.
- Read a book, quietly draw, or work on an assignment in another class.
- You may borrow a book in the back if you do not have one. Please return it before the bell rings.
